Knowledge transfer award

As part of the 2018 Symposium, the RQR will present two Knowledge Transfer (KT) awards: a researcher award and a trainee award. These two awards, in the amount of $400 each, will be officially presented at the annual RQR Symposium in November, accompanied by an honorary plaque. To submit an application, please complete the form and send it by email to charlene.rico@umontreal.ca before October 1st, 2018. Please note that it is also possible to nominate another member, either a trainee or a researcher.

RQR co-supervision bursary program

The RQR co-supervision bursary program now open. The bursary program is for newly recruited graduate and postdoctoral trainees who are co-supervised by two regular members of the RQR. Eligible trainees can apply until November 1st, 2018 by completing the following form: <https://goo.gl/forms/ljLMoQpAnSGZ2yY72> The final bursary amounts and their recipients will be officially announced at the Symposium. The final budget for this competition will be $150,000, so please take full advantage of this exceptional opportunity!

FRQNT international internship program

Are you aware that the FRQNT has opened their International internship competition, for which RQR students are eligible? Program details are available here. Any students wishing to apply must complete the attached form and send it to Charlene Rico no later than October 1st. The RQR is permitted to submit up to two applications to the FRQNT. An internal competition will therefore be held if more than two applications are received.
